

CHAMPION DE LUXEMBOURG DE BEAUTE.
ATTRIBUTION REGULATIONS.

Introductory comments:

1. Terms referring to natural persons are applicable to both genders and numbers.
2. Definitions :
  - L.Ch. : Champion de Luxembourg de Beauté.
  - FCL : Fédération Cynologique Luxembourgeoise.
  - CACL : Certificat d’Aptitude au Champion de Luxembourg.
  - Centrale: member of the FCL.
  - FCI : Fédération Cynologique Internationale.
  - Club: association, member of a Centrale or affiliated to a Centrale.

The title L.Ch will be awarded by the FCL, on the owner's request to a dog which has achieved:

- a) Two CACL, at two international dog shows organized by the FCL, under two different judges, recognized by the FCI.
- b) One CACL, at an international dog show organized by the FCL, in combination with one CACL at a Club Special dog show, sponsored by the FCL, under two different judges, recognized by the FCI.
- c) One CACL, at one international dog show organized by the FCL, in “Champion class” (FCI acknowledged titles only).
- d) Three CACL on national shows organized either by the FCL, by a Centrale or by a Club, this from 01/01/2018 and under three different judges, recognized by the FCI. One of these three CACL must be obtained at a show, may be national or international and organized either by the FCL or by a Centrale.
If a dog has obtained two CACL-Reserve in the context of special breed shows organized either by a Club or by a Centrale, it is important to indicate that these two CACL-Reserve have the value of one CACL.

Should the CACL be awarded to a dog, to which the title L.CH. has been approved and awarded already, on the day of the show, the CACL can be transferred to the dog having obtained the CACL-Reserve.

The CACL is awarded as well to dog and bitch in the following classes:
Champion class - Working class - Intermediate class - Open class.

The validity of the CACL is unlimited in time.
